EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

This report provides an update on changes to powers that Council delegates to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO). Delegations are based on sections in state and federal government legislation that give power to perform an action. The Local Government Association of Queensland (LGAQ) advises Council of new, updated, and repealed delegations.

This report seeks approval to proceed with the recommendation to delegate the exercise of powers described herein to the CEO.

BACKGROUND:

Cairns Regional Council has certain functions and duties that it must perform, and certain powers which it may exercise, pursuant to the Local Government Act 2009 ("the Act") as well as a range of other Acts. In most cases, the relevant Acts grant these obligations and powers directly to the Elected Council.

It is not practical or efficient for the Council as a body of Elected Members to perform the many operational activities that are required in the day-to-day administration of the Council's roles and functions. Section 257 of the Act allows the Council to formally delegate many of its powers and functions to the CEO, who may then sub-delegate these powers and functions to other responsible staff members under section 259 of the Act.

LGAQ, with the assistance of King & Company Solicitors, developed a register following a comprehensive review of State Legislation affecting Local Government. King & Company updates the register during the two (2) major Queensland Parliamentary recesses. Local Governments throughout Queensland subscribe to and utilise the registers produced by LGAQ and King & Company. In accordance with section 260 of the Act, Council's CEO must establish a register of delegations that contains the particulars prescribed under a regulation. The register covers all possible delegations from Council to CEO and from CEO to Employees and/or Contractors. The Register is voluminous, and it is extremely unlikely that any Council will exercise all the powers identified in the Register. The entire register of delegations may be inspected upon request.

COMMENT:

The LGAQ has advised of a special update to the register. Details of the new registers and changes to powers are provided in Attachment 1.

New registers – (hyperlinked to the full legislation)
Property Law Act 2023 - Council to CEO

Registers with changes – (hyperlinked to the full legislation)
Information Privacy Act 2009 Council to CEO
Tobacco and Other Smoking Products Act 1998 – Council to CEO

OPTIONS:

1. That Council:

    1. Adopts the changes to the powers delegated to the Chief Executive Officer pursuant to section 257 of the Local Government Act 2009 as detailed in Attachment 1.
    2. Recognises the powers that are unable to be delegated as detailed in Attachment 2.
    3. Adopts the 'Register of Delegations – Council the Chief Executive Officer', consolidating the changes in Attachment 1 with the existing delegations in Attachment 3, which details all powers both delegated and not delegated, pursuant to section 257 of the Local Government Act 2009.
    4. Adopts the conditions and limitations to the exercising of delegated powers outlined in Attachment 4.
    5. Authorises the Mayor to sign the Instrument of Delegation in accordance with section 27A(3) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1954.

2. Council resolves to amend the recommendation to limit the exercise of powers, described within this report, which are to be delegated to the CEO.

CONSIDERATIONS:

Risk Management:

Delegation of powers to the CEO and further sub-delegation to Council Officers will ensure actions undertaken by Council are compliant with legislative requirements.

While Council delegates these powers to the CEO, this does not limit Councillors' ability to exercise these powers themselves as part of their duties as Councillors for Cairns Regional Council.

Corporate and Operational Plans:

Council's activities are consistent with Corporate Plan Focus 5: Focused Council

- Ensure decision making is collaborative, transparent and accountable.

Statutory:

Section 257(1)(b) of the Local Government Act 2009 permits a local government, by resolution, to delegate a power under an act to the Chief Executive Officer.

Section 257(3) of the Local Government Act 2009 states that a local government must not delegate a power that an Act states must be exercised by resolution.

Section 260 of the Local Government Act 2009 requires Council to establish and maintain a register of delegations, and section 305 of Local Government Regulation 2012 details the particulars to be contained in this register.

Additionally, section 257(5) of the Local Government Act 2009 mandates that a delegation to the Chief Executive Officer must be reviewed annually.

CONSULTATION:

Once Council has resolved to delegate all powers within this report to the CEO, consultation will be conducted with each directorate to determine the appropriate subdelegation as required.
