

D Suburbs

Deeral

Deeral was originally known as Munro's Creek, after William John Munro and was situated upon the Cairns-Mulgrave rail. In 1909, the Tramway Committee renamed the tramway, calling it Deeral. It was believed that the name was an aboriginal name, Yidinyji language, indicating teeth, but to date it has not been confirmed.