Deep Roots is an exhibition showcasing the latest discoveries from the Lit Sung Gong Temple collection.

A collaboration between Cairns Museum and CADCAI, the exhibition will be launched as part of the Chinese New Year celebrations in Cairns and will reveal how new work on this nationally significant temple collection is uncovering hitherto unknown aspects of the cultural and spiritual life of Cairns’ pioneering Chinese community.