

'E' Street Names

Street Name	Suburb	Street Name Origin
Eagle Close	Yorkeys Knob	Named after a golfing theme, this street is close to the Half Moon Bay Golf Club.
Eagle Street	Deeral	No information found.
Earl Street	Westcourt	This street was named after Mr Edward Campbell Earl who had a butcher's shop in Spence Street. He was the first Chairman of the Cairns Harbour Board and was Mayor of Cairns in 1906.
East Parkridge Drive	Brinsmead	Named because it heads to the eastern part of the Parkridge estate.
Easterbrook Lane	Kewarra Beach	No information found.
Eastwood Street	Babinda	This street was named after a pioneering family of the area. Joseph Greetham Eastwood was an early settler in the Babinda district and landowner in the East Russell area where he grew coffee. He was later a librarian at the Babinda School of Arts and an agent for the State Government Insurance Office. He passed away on the 18th May 1943, and his grave is in the Babinda Cemetery.
Ebony Street	Redlynch	This street was named for a rainforest and water theme after the Ebony tree (Bauhinia carronii).
Ebrington Close	Gordonvale	This close was named after an old family in the area.
Echo Close	Mount Sheridan	No information found.
Eddy Street	Clifton Beach	This street was named after Eddy Reef, which is located east of Mission Beach.
Eden Court	Clifton Beach	Named after Eden Reef off the Queensland coast.
Edgar Street	Bungalow	Mr Edgar Boden who sub-divided the land.

Cairns Heritage Page

Edmonds Close	Bentley Park	Named after early ship that explored the Northern waters, the street survey plan was registered with the Mulgrave Shire on 17/6/1993.
Edward Street	Cairns North	This street was named for a Christian name theme.
Egan Street	Manunda	Named after Alderman A.J. Egan.
Egmont Close	Clifton Beach	Named after a reef off the Queensland coast.
Eithne Street	Woree	This street was named after Eithne Doherty, wife of Tom Doherty, a long time employee of the Cairns City Council.
El Paso Street	Bayview Heights	Named for a Spanish flavour theme.
Eleanor Close	Mooroobool	Possibly named after Mrs Eleanor Moody.
Elford Street	Clifton Beach	Named after reefs off the Queensland coast.
Elgata Close	Woree	No information found.
Elkhorn Close	Redlynch	This close was named for a rainforest and water theme after the Elkhorn fern (Platyserium bifurcatum) which is a cluster of many individuals. It is the most common and widely spread of the fern species.
Ellen Close	Bayview Heights	Named after a female Christian name theme.
Ellestree Close	Redlynch	No information found.
Ellibank Close	Edmonton	No information found.
Ellie Banning Close	Redlynch	This close was named after the daughter of the owners of the land that Redlynch Valley Estate is located on.

Elliott Court	Gordonvale	No information found.
Ellis Close	Kewarra Beach	Named after an Australian beaches theme, Ellis beach is north of Cairns.
Ellis Road	Bellenden Ker	No information found.
Ellison Street	Clifton Beach	Named after a reef off the Queensland coast.
Elliver Street	Smithfield	No information found.
Ellwood Close	Kewarra Beach	Named after an Australian beaches theme, Ellwood is an inner Melbourne beach suburb.
Elm Street	Holloways Beach	Streets in this suburb were named after floral and tree theme at suggestion of resident Anne Edwards. The elm tree (Ulmus procera) originated from Europe, North America and Asia and fully mature elm trees can live as long as 300 years. They are used extensively as landscape trees, and the wood is prized by furniture and piano makers for its strength, weight –bearing and toughness.
Elmire Close	Westcourt	No information found.
Elphinstone Close	Portsmith	Named after an early squatter.
Elphinstone Street	Kanimbla	Named after an early squatter.
Emerald Street	Bayview Heights	This street was named for a gemstone theme after the Emerald, which is an intense green or bluish green gemstone. Gemstones are highly prized for their beauty, durability and rarity. Developed by three Irishmen (Peter Murphy, Richard Moffatt, George Mitchell) trading as M. Industries P/L. The survey plan was registered in May 1973.
Emma Close	Mount Sheridan	Named after a ship theme, Emma was a ship that brought immigrants to Australia in the mid-1800s.

Cairns Heritage Page

Emperor Street	Kanimbla	This street was named for a reef fish theme after the emperor angelfish (Pomacanthus imperator). The species are predominantly herbivores, but are also carnivores eating coral heads and small invertebrates, crushing hard-shelled prey with their powerful beak-like jaws.
Emson Road	Woopen Creek	No information found.
Endeavour Road	Clifton Beach	Named after reefs off the Queensland coast. This reef was named by Capt James Cook whose ship the Endeavour hit this reef off Cooktown on 11 June 1770.
English Street	Manunda	Dr Peter B. English was a medical practitioner in Cairns during the 1930's and was also an Alderman 1930-1939.
Enmore Street	Manoora	Named by sub-divider Mr Charles Woodward after the Sydney suburb of Enmore. In the land boom of the early 1880s, an area of Portion 94 fronting Waterworks Road (now Reservoir Road) was sub-divided and called Walkerston. When the boom ended, many people forfeited their land through non-payment of rates. Charles Woodward bought the majority of land from different owners and at council auctions for arrears of rates. He re-subdivided some of the land, calling it Enmore Estate. That estate is now where Manoora is sited. (source: Mrs Anne Mills nee Woodward.)
Erang Street	Woree	No information found.
Ernest Street	Redlynch	No information found.
Eros Close	Edmonton	Named after Greek theme Eros is principally the patron of male love and sexual desire. Eros is also a variety of sugar cane that was bred by CSR in 1933 and was grown around the Hambleton and Ingham areas. The street's survey plan was registered on 13 th of September 1973.
Escape Close	Clifton Beach	Named after reefs off the Queensland coast, Escape reef is an outer shelf ribbon reef with an area of 21 square kilometres located east of the Bloomfield River.
Esplanade	Cairns, Cairns North	Bounded by the ocean.

Cairns Heritage Page

Esterina Close	Redlynch	No information found.
Ethel Close	Redlynch	No information found.
Etna Close	Woree	Named after a volcano in Southern Italy.
Etty Street	Kewarra Beach	This street was named after an Australian beach theme. Etty Beach is near Innisfail in Queensland.
Eubenangee Road	Eubenangee	The road is named after the region.
Eucalyptus Drive	Redlynch	Streets in this subdivision are named for a rainforest and water theme. Eucalyptus is a rainforest tree genus.
Eugenia Crescent	Redlynch	Streets in this subdivision are named for a rainforest and water theme. Eugenia is a genus of rainforest tree.
Euodia Close	Kamerunga	The Euodia elleryana is a rainforest flower that occurs predominantly in coastal and riverine rainforests and flowers in summer. It is a highly ornamental plant that is popularly grown in parks and gardens. It is also the host plant of the Ulysses butterfly.
Eureka Street	Manunda	Named after Mr J.G. Hoare's property "Eureka". He was also Mayor of Cairns from 1920-1924.
Euston Close	Clifton Beach	Streets in this area are named after reefs off the Queensland coast. Euston Reef is an outer shelf patch reef off the coast of Cairns which borders Grafton Passage.
Evans Road	Bramston Beach	Named after Councillor A.F. Evans, 1936–45 & 1947–57.
Evans Street	Yorkeys Knob	Named for Wally Evans, a member of the progress association at Yorkeys Knob in the 1930s.

Cairns Heritage Page

Everglade Rise	Brinsmead	This street was named for an environmental 'green' theme after Everglades National Park in the United States of America.
Everglades Street	Palm Cove	This street was named for a palm theme. The everglades palm also known as the Paurotis palm (Acoelorrhaphe wrightii) is native to Central America, south-eastern Mexico, the West Indies, the Bahamas and extreme southern Florida. It is one of the few palms that can survive standing in water.
Evergreen Street	Clifton Beach	Evergreen plants never totally lose their leaves; they can be broad-leaved or needle-leaved.